PART B: Use of Information
 In order to ensure we are continually improving our programs and activities, GGC may periodically contact girls to ask for their ideas, opinions and feedback. Please check the box if you do not give us permission to contact your daughter/ward.

PART C: Accessibility Needs

If your daughter/ward has any disabilities that may require accommodation, disclosing them will help us place her in a unit or activity that best meets her needs. Also, if you wish to discuss any accommodation needs with a GGC representative to help find the best unit for your daughter, you can contact your provincial office at 1-800-565-8111 or membership@girlguides.ca.

Parent/Guardian Consent and Membership Agreement

General Consent Statement

Guiding activities are organized according to set standards and guidelines for activity management including supervision, training, equipment, and health matters. These standards are documented in Safe Guide: Activity Planning and Safety Management and are available upon request.

During a typical Guiding activity, your daughter/ward may participate in activities, supervised by her Guider, which may include, but are not limited to:

- Arts and crafts (use of scissors, glue, small craft materials)
- Active games (physical activities that may involve balls, running, skipping, jumping, tossing, etc.)
- Swimming at a public swimming facility that provides lifeguards
- Use of equipment (for science experiments, crafts, games, cooking, etc.)
- Active outdoor activities in the community (cookie sales, walking tours, skating, nature walks, etc.)
- Excursions to local points of interest (museums, parks, fire halls, etc.)

In all activities there is an element of risk. While Girl Guides of Canada and your daughter's/ward's Guider(s) take reasonable precautions to minimize these risks, this is no guarantee against injury or loss.

Some of the risks associated with typical activities include (but are not limited to): scrapes, cuts or bruises; sprains, strains or possible broken bones; illness from known or unknown sources; theft or loss of possessions; unforeseen injuries from activities, equipment or actions of your daughter/ward, other participants or other people, including negligent actions.

You will occasionally need to provide your daughter/ward with equipment or clothing appropriate for the activity.

From time to time, unscreened adults who are not Members may assist with the supervision of your daughter's/ward's unit activities under the direction of a Guider. Our procedures do not permit a girl to be left alone with an unscreened adult.

Some activities may take place in the community. These may be within walking distance, or may require a different drop-off or pick-up location. When activity locations require alternate drop-off or pick-up or other transportation arrangements, the Guider will provide you with the details.

From time to time your daughter/ward may attend activities or events (e.g., camps, trips, or special outings or events) that would be in addition to the activities outlined above. Your permission will be required for these specific activities/events. If this occurs your daughter/ward's Unit Guider will send home additional information about the planned activity or event.

Membership Agreement

By signing this agreement, I confirm that I understand, agree with and consent to the following:

- Girl Guides of Canada–Guides du Canada (GGC) is a volunteer organization for girls and women, and I will support my daughter/ward and her Guiders in their activities throughout the year.
- I agree that my daughter/ward will participate in the sale of Girl Guide Cookies, the primary fundraiser for GGC.
- I understand my responsibility in making sure my daughter/ward arrives and is picked up on time for meetings and other activities.
- I have read and understand the Code of Conduct, and I agree that my daughter/ward and I will abide by it and uphold its terms. I will also inform any other parent(s)/guardian(s) of my daughter/ward who will interact with GGC that they must also abide by it and uphold its terms.
- I understand that there is a degree of risk involved in GGC's activities and after carefully considering all the risks that may be involved, I freely and voluntarily assume any and all risks associated with Guiding activities on behalf of my daughter/ward not limited to those risks explained in the General Consent Statement.

As a custodial parent/guardian of _____ I authorize my daughter/ward to participate as a member of Girl Guides of Canada–Guides du Canada and I acknowledge that GGC intends to rely on this Parent/Guardian Consent and Membership Agreement.

Code of Conduct

(Revision: December 9, 2010)

This Code of Conduct is an integral part of involvement with Girl Guides of Canada–Guides du Canada (GGC). The Code of Conduct requires all Members, all volunteers, all employees, and all parents and guardians of Members to:

1. Refrain from words, actions and behaviour – in any medium -- that demonstrate disrespect for other Members, volunteers, employees, or the family members of such individuals.
2. Uphold GGC's reputation and integrity by ensuring that their conduct, whether in person, online, or otherwise, brings honour and dignity to GGC.
3. Be vigilant in ensuring an environment that is safe and protects girl and adult Members, volunteers and employees from emotional, physical, verbal and sexual abuse.
4. Respect other Members', volunteers' and employees' rights to privacy and the confidentiality of their personal information.
5. Act with honesty and integrity when dealing with property, monies and any other assets belonging to GGC.
6. Respect and abide by the laws of Canada and of the relevant Province or Territory.
7. Treat Members, volunteers, employees and Members' families fairly, knowing that GGC does not tolerate unlawful discrimination on the basis of race, national or ethnic origin, citizenship, colour, religion, sex, age, mental or physical ability, political beliefs, socio-economic status, health-related status, sexual orientation, marital status, or any other grounds enumerated in the human rights legislation of the jurisdiction in which the individuals involved are located.

In addition, Members, volunteers and Employees will:

8. Subscribe to the principles of the Promise and Law of GGC and adhere to GGC's bylaws, policies and procedures.
9. Fulfill their roles and responsibilities as stated in their position descriptions (where applicable) and act within the limitations of their authority in the discharge of their duties.
10. Diligently maintain the confidentiality of any information regarding GGC that they have obtained in the course of performing their roles in Guiding and that is not generally available to the public.

Girl Guides of Canada–Guides du Canada reserves the right to take action regarding any breach of the Code of Conduct.

Understanding the Code of Conduct

The Code of Conduct sets clear standards of respectful behaviour for the Guiding community of girl members and their parents/guardians, adult members, volunteers, and employees. With the Code of Conduct comes a responsibility to follow its standards by being a good example and supporting others in doing the same.

Lines between a person's personal life and employment/volunteer role are often blurred. Members, volunteers or employees need to keep in mind how their words and actions during or outside of GGC activities may impact the organization's reputation.

For more information on interpreting the Code of Conduct and some basic Dos and Don'ts, please go to Understanding the Code of Conduct.

We protect and respect your privacy. Your personal information is used only for the purposes stated on or indicated by the form. For complete details, see our Privacy Statement at www.girlguides.ca or contact your provincial office or the national office for a copy.

The Code of Conduct and You

(March 2011)

The stated values for Girl Guides of Canada (GGC) are stipulated in the Promise and Law, and are further reinforced by the Code of Conduct. Being a part of the Guiding community, you – girl Members and their parents/guardians, adult Members, volunteers, and employees – have the right to participate in an environment that is respectful, safe, and positive. With this right comes the responsibility to ensure a respectful, safe and positive experience for everyone involved in Guiding.

Each person involved with GGC has roles and responsibilities with respect to the Code of Conduct:

- Uphold the principles of the Code of Conduct and be personally accountable for your actions and behaviour.
- Hold each other accountable for actions and behaviour.
- Use open, clear and respectful communication to resolve issues.
- Take prompt and reasonable action to address issues in a timely manner to avoid unnecessary escalation, and seek assistance if necessary.
- Be a role model for others, especially for our girl Members/daughters/wards.

Adult Members working with girls are expected to:

- share and explain the Code of Conduct to the girls in their Unit, and together establish a common understanding of the Code of Conduct as it applies to their Unit;
- educate themselves on GGC policies and procedures;
- explain to non-member volunteers, and parents/guardians, the policies and procedures relevant to their interaction with GGC;
- communicate regularly and meaningfully with parents/guardians;
- maintain consistent standards of behaviour for all girls.

Parents/guardians are expected to:

- encourage and assist their daughter/ward in following the Code of Conduct;
- ensure that other parent(s)/guardian(s) of their daughter/ward are aware of the Code of Conduct, and of their responsibility in following it in their interactions with GGC;
- support the efforts of GGC and its adult Members in maintaining an environment where all can enjoy Guiding;
- communicate regularly and meaningfully with the Unit Guiders of their daughter/ward's Guiding Unit

Girl Members are expected to:

- Participate in programming with their Unit Guider to learn about the Code of Conduct and our standards of behaviour.

The Code of Conduct policy is available on the GGC website, from adult members or from provincial offices.

We protect and respect your privacy. Your personal information is used only for the purposes stated on or indicated by the form. For complete details, see our Privacy Statement at www.girlguides.ca or contact your provincial office or the national office for a copy.
